A fashion photograph featuring a woman as the central subject. She is wearing a vibrant purple quilted puffer jacket, which is partially unzipped to reveal a patterned shirt with green, white, and brown tones. On her head, she wears a dark green, textured knit beanie. Her hair is styled in a braid, and she has a serious, focused expression, looking directly at the camera. Her hands are positioned near the collar of her jacket. The background is a rich, textured brown with subtle variations in tone, creating a warm and atmospheric setting. The lighting is soft and directional, highlighting the textures of the clothing and the woman's features.
